

Store Store

Introduction to Social Responsibility Programs (SRP) based on ISO 26000

Why should you attend?

ISO 26000 Introduction training course enables you to comprehend the fundamental concepts of a Social Responsibility Program (SRP).

By attending the ISO 26000 Introduction course, you will understand the importance of a Social Responsibility Program and the benefits that businesses, society and governments can obtain.

Who should attend?		Learning objectives
 Individuals concerned with and committed to Social Responsibility Individuals aspiring to gain knowledge about Social Responsibility Programs (SRP) 		 Understand the concepts, approaches, methods, and techniques used by organizations to contribute to sustainable development Understand the basic elements of a Social Responsibility Program (SRP)
Course agenda	DURATION: 1 DAY	Prerequisites
 Day 1: Introduction to Social responsibility Program (SRP) based on ISO 26000 		> None
Examination None 		Certification
		> None

General information

- > Training material containing over 100 pages of information and practical examples will be distributed
- > A participation certificate of 7 CPD (Continuing Professional Development) credits will be issued